

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS FILM SERIES

- Every 2nd Thursday
- 7pm @ the Newman Center.
- Popcorn and drinks will be provided.
- Discussion will follow each movie.

Sept 10th – Make me a channel of your peace.

White Light, Black Rain (2007) - Why nonviolence was central to the teaching of Jesus.

Sept 24th – Where there is hatred let me sow love.

Longford (2006) - How much love can we offer the despised?

October 8th – Where there is injury, pardon.

Boy A (2007) - Can we really forgive those who trespass against our ideals?

October 22nd – Where there is doubt, faith.

The Great Debaters (2007) How do we overcome doubt in our own lives to achieve greatness?

November 12th – Where there is despair, hope.

The Girl in the Café (2005) What can one person do to make a difference in the world?

November 19th – Where there is darkness, light.

What dreams May come (1998) What attracts us the most, darkness or light?

December 10th – Where there is sadness, Joy.

Born into Brothels (2004) How can we break the cycles of oppression and exploitation?

Jan 21st – Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console.

- Molokai: The Story of Father Damien. (1999) How can people see Christ in our own actions?

Feb 11th – To be understood as to understand.

Billy Elliot (2000) - How do we bridge the gap between what we are comfortable with and new possibilities?

Feb 25th – To be loved as to love.

Wall-E (2008) Are we more interested in finding love than giving love?

March 11th - For it is in giving that we receive.

Millions (2004) - Why are we afraid to share?

March 25th – Pardoning that we are pardoned.

Forgiveness (2004) Why do we need to be powerless if we are to truly forgive?

April 8th – Dying we are born to eternal life.

Gran Torino (2008) Why Dying to self can bring the ultimate life!!