To the Students

I would like to wish the students all the best over the summer. May you have a peaceful and restful stay to make sure you are recharged and ready for next year.

I will be back on June 15th. The Newman Center will be open from 11-3pm during the summer months. During the World Cup, we will open a little earlier—at 8.30AM—if anyone is around who would like to watch the games live.

Mahalo for a wonderful year - I can't wait to see you again with some new and exciting opportunities for the new academic year.

Peace.

Danny

From the Students

Thank you to all who brought snacks and goodies for the students during Finals Week. Your support and caring is so welcome during what is a stressful and difficult time for many students.

Students also wished to express their enjoyment and gratefulness to Rayna Galati who cooked a very delicious dinner of Mediterranean Chicken, Greek salad, Saffron Rice and French Bread topped off with brownies for over 40 students on Sunday evening. It was certainly a high point and a very good way to end the semester.

Dear Ohana of the Newman Center,

There are no words that can express my thanks for all you have done for the Newman Center/Holy Spirit Parish.

- ◆ Our Holy Week and Easter liturgical celebrations were so well attended and the hospitality could not have been better.
- ◆ Our Brunch-Auction was a great success and you have been so generous.
- ◆ As we wind down with the Easter celebrations of First Communion (our largest class for years) and Confirmation, and graduation this weekend, we are nearing the final days of the academic year.

Many are probably planning to be away for part of the summer. And our pilgrimage to Fatima, the Spain of Ignatius and Javier, ending with Lourdes begins on May 28. We will be praying for all of you as we visit these holy places.

Last year, I wrote a letter asking all of you to make up your plate collection while you are away. We are so blessed as we got through the summer without any loss of the plate collection.

Thanks for remembering your Newman Center parish and have a blessed and safe summer.

Sincerely,

Fr. Russ Roide, S.J.

Congratulations to all our students who graduated on May 15th.
