Change in the Sacramental Order

Newman Center is in the second group of parishes transitioning to the proper order of the sacraments. In order to better understand this concept, please watch the Original Order and Confirmation videos. Bishop Larry, clergy, and lay persons will help you to better understand the history, theology, and vision of restoring the sacraments of initiation to their proper theological order.

Please watch the video at this link:

School Supplies Drive Completion

Many thanks to all who contributed to the “2nd Annual School Supplies Drive”! The tremendous success is yet another example of the spirit of Newman in doing outreach to our university community!

Newman’s mission is to live and enact Christ’s message to the university community – students, faculty and staff. Through this project we have connected with the non-traditional student population of the university – a group that is hard to reach and challenging to serve.

On July 20 the Non-Violence Affinity Group of Newman Center will deliver to the Student Parents @ Manoa program 18 filled backpacks. Additional donated materials will be taken to the Next Step Shelter in Kaka’ako for distribution to homeless families as they also prepare for a new school year. The money left after purchasing listed items that were not donated will be deposited into the Newman Center Social Outreach account for later distribution.

Many thanks for your generosity and for the opportunity to spread Newman’s message to a new student population at UH Manoa!

Mangoes to Share?

Max Higa, one of our summer interns, is working on his internship project (see bio to left). In order to provide an incentive for participation, he will be making home-made MANGO CHUTNEY! If you have a few mangoes to share, he would surely appreciate it—variety from green to ripe. Bring them with you the next time you’re at Newman. You can contact him at info@newmanhawaii.org for further information.

Celebrations Scripture Reflection Sts. Peter and Paul apostles: 16:13-19

"Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Sin constrains us. The chains of guilt and shame restrain our moving on. Jesus demonstrates the powerful effect of forgiveness. When loosing what binds sinners, Jesus receives them at his table, restores their relationships and welcomes them back into communities in which they felt alienated, unwelcome, unworthy or rejected. In sharing his power to forgive sins with Peter and the apostles, Jesus also looses our limited understanding of our personal role in the power of forgiveness. While we don't have the ecclesial authority of absolution, we possess an individual responsibility to support those who contritely seek healing. We each have a unique power to bind and loose. Both personally and as a church we must embrace repentant sinners. Denying forgiveness, even to ourselves, poses an insurmountable barrier to reconciliation with God and the church.

Merciful Father, thank you for your gifts of forgiveness and healing. Patricia Russell

Living Catholic in the 808: When Sharing the Faith Offends Others Kristina DeNeve Adult Education Coordinator Diocese of Honolulu

When we share our faith, we can expect to have experiences like Jesus in today's Gospel. People will not always understand. People will be confused or irritated. The Gospel says people "took offense" at Jesus.

As Jesus' followers, this means there will be times when we have faithful, loving intentions and yet people will literally take offense. Sometimes people will be offended when we talk about Jesus!

NOTE: This does not mean we are supposed to go out of our way to offend people. Jesus was not angry, indignant, confrontive, argumentative, etc... when he shared the Good News. If you are any of these, then I guarantee you are not speaking for God. How can I know this? Because the first and foremost sign of Jesus' presence is peace. Galatians 5:22 tells us point blank that peace, patience, kindness, gentleness, and self-control are signs of the Holy Spirit. Not anger or combativeness.

We must be like Jesus – share openly and nondefensively. If need be, we, too, can be amazed and grieved by others' lack of faith.
