Newman Center Fun Run/Walk

Join us for the Newman Center Fun Run/Walk on Saturday, January 26. The race begins at 8 am. Entry forms are on the credenza or register on line. It is a great way to begin the new year. Invite your family, friends, and co-workers. Entry fee on the day of the race is $30. Further information is on the entry form. Pick up an entry form today.

Help with Ministries

As the new semester begins, we are in need of Liturgical Ministers for weekend Masses, especially the Sunday 5 pm:

Greeters, to welcome the community, Lectors to proclaim the scripture, and Eucharistic Ministers to help serve at the reception of the blessed sacrament. A liturgical minister is assigned to the Mass he or she most often attends and is usually assigned once a month. The Sunday 5 pm mass is always looking for members to join the choir.

The ministry of environment needs people to create the floral arrangements that enhance our liturgical events. The Center provides $40 a week for the cost of flowers.

Interested in serving as an acolyte / altar server? This is a great way to integrate the Mass as part of your spirituality.

If you are interested in serving in a ministry at Mass, contact Alyce Dodge at info@newmanhawaii.org.

Please sign up on the "Arranging Flowers" sheet on the chapel door.

Please sign up on the Hospitality sheet on the door if you are willing to serve and provide refreshments after Masses the first weekends of the month.

Thank you for your continued service to our community.

WELCOME TO NEWMAN!

If you are a VISITOR to the Newman Center, you are most welcome here! Should you have any questions about our liturgies, pastoral services, ministries, activities, service outreach opportunities and events, please do not hesitate to look for our pastoral staff members. You're invited to visit our website for additional information: www.NewmanHawaii.org. If you'd like to receive communication about upcoming events, please fill out a BLUE Registration Form on the credenza.

Reflections from the Pastor

This past weekend Bishop Larry Silva installed me as your Pastor. As I was reflecting on what this meant, I went to canon law for guidance. In one of the canons regarding pastors, it states, "he is to be outstanding in sound doctrine and integrity of morals and endowed with zeal for souls and other virtues." What caught my attention were the words "zeal for souls". Zeal in the Catholic understanding means love in action. It also means an impelling desire to advance the Kingdom of Christ, to sanctify souls, and to advance the glory of God. My hope as your Pastor is to lead you to the One who is Love so that by your personal encounter with Love you will go out and share the Good News!

Your servant in Christ,

Fr Alfred Omar

Adult Confirmation or First Communion

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) might be for you if you are either of the following:

- 1) a Catholic without the sacraments of confirmation and/or communion
- 2) baptized members of other Christian communities or
- 3) Unbaptised adult.

Why? To help you explore Catholicism and then decide whether to become full members of the Catholic Church.

How? Weekly meetings with community members, talk with other Catholics about their experience, meet "new" Catholics about why and how they joined the Church, to learn about the Bible, the church, Catholic Christian traditions, resources for personal reading and study, opportunities for private consultation.

For more information, contact RCIA coordinator, Rosemary Casey at rcasey6971@gmail.com

Prayer of John Henry Newman

Lead, Kindly Light, amidst th' encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on!

The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead Thou me on!

Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see the distant scene; one step enough for me.

I was of ever thus, no prayed that Thou shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path;
but now Lead Thou me on!

I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears, pride ruled my will. Remember not past years!

So long Thy power hath blest me, sure it still will lead me on.
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till the night is gone.
And with the morn those angel faces smile,
which I have loved long since, and lost awhile!

Meantime, along the narrow rugged path,
Thyself hast trod,
Lead, Saviour, lead me home in childlike faith,
Home to my God.
To rest forever after earthly strife in the calm light in the calm light of everlasting life.

Donation Slips for Online Giving

We are encouraging parishioners to give online through our secure platform, WeShare:

Do Whatever He Tells You

Very Rev. Msgr. Gary L. Secor, V.G.
Rector, Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace

John's gospel today recounts the first of Jesus' miracles. As John tells us about this event, he means to indicate that this is one of the "signs" around which his gospel is structured. This means that the event is more than just a story about Christ being kind in a moment of human need or an indication that Jesus liked to be at parties or fun events. What is the deeper significance that we are meant to see?

First of all, the miracle occurs at a wedding. In the light of the first reading from Isaiah, we are being reminded of the spousal love that God has for us. This image of spousal love is often used in the Bible to describe God's love for us and what our love for God should be. It tells us that this love is everlasting, deeply felt, and should be mutually exchanged. All the blessings and burdens that characterize a life-giving marriage, by analogy, are part of a life-giving relationship with God.

Secondly, we see how Mary's faith and intercession helps us to experience the miracle of Christ's love. She is a perfect example of faith and perseverance as she doesn't allow Jesus' apparent rebuke to shake her belief in his ability to help. She told them and she tells us to: "Do whatever he tells you". We would do well to listen to her and to follow her example. We can also help one another to believe in Christ's power.

Finally, the changing of water into very excellent wine is a reminder of what God wants to do for each of us. If we will give to God what we have, even if it is imperfect and not enough, God will change it into something much better. This is the foundation of the optimism that is at the heart of Christianity; the best is yet to come!

Back Page Series on 'What is Campus Ministry?'

In the coming weeks the back page will feature short descriptions about our community's main mission, which is campus ministry. While we hear the word used to refer to the outreach to the students of the University of Hawai'i - Mānoa, there is much more to the ministry than we might know. We will begin with a short history of the university apostolate, which we now call "campus ministry". How does campus ministry contribute to the University and vice versa? Who serve on campus, is it just the priest and campus ministers? We will also focus on the six main aspects campus ministry in which we try to address in the pastoral care of those present in the university: forming the faith community, appropriation of the faith, forming the Christian conscience, educating for justice, facilitating personal development, and developing leaders for the future. We hope that you will find the coming weeks useful and information. Perhaps you might find yourself surprised about the different aspects of what we do, how we do it, and why we do it. We are able to make our community vision and mission a reality because you and we thank you!

Join a Walking Group

Interested in joining a walking group? Newman Center is looking for individuals who would like to participate in a Blue Zones Project walking moai (hui/group) that walks once a week. Similar to centenarians in the Blue Zones like Okinawa and Costa Rica, walking is a social activity that can help you stay fit – while also building community here at our church. If interested, email Molly at molly.mamaryl@sharecare.com by Feb 1 and based on your availability, we can choose a date and time for the first walk. Learn more at: <https://hawaii.bluezonesproject.com/>

New Book Featuring UH Manoa's Campus Ministry

Contributors from five continents and across the U.S. offer case studies of best practices and practical tools for creating and maintaining Christian communities for young adults, both within and beyond academic settings. U.S. case studies include Boston College, Catholic Relief Services, and Leadership Labs at the University of Hawai'i. With an extensive list of additional resources, including a Small Groups Field Guide from the Catholic Campus Ministry Association, God's Quad offers students, youth ministers, and campus organizers in-sights and inspiration in equal measure. Chapter author and book co-editor, Christopher Malano, plans to hold a book event soon!
