The affirmations agreed upon by the sponsoring groups are:

- That all people should have the opportunity to enjoy lives of harmony and peace.

Mahalo to Fun Run / Walk Volunteers!!

The following Newmanites were instrumental in making the Fun Run/Walk a huge success: Roel & Lisa Espiritu, BA Akana, Karen Boyer, Rose Liu, Jackie Tellei-Higa, Cortney Midla, Molly Mamaril, Vince Costello, Gary Meyer, Derek Dayao. Each of them also involved other volunteers who helped with all aspects of the event – preparations, soliciting food & prizes, picking up food & supplies, announcing the event to outside groups.

Staff members Alyce Dodge, Chris Malano & Fr. Alfred performed essential tasks, & Julie Shiroma paid the bills. All contributed to the success of the event & are to be congratulated on their commitment to Newman!

Reflections from the Pastor

"Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed." was the theme of this year's Catholic Schools Week. What is Catholic Schools Week? It is when schools in our diocese and the around the United States celebrate Catholic education with a week of Masses, open houses, and other activities for their students, families, parishioners and community members. I was invited this week to speak to four groups of students (pre-k to 8 grade) at St. Theresa School in Kapalama about my vocation to the Ordained Priesthood. As I was speaking to the Kindergarten to 3rd Grade group about how God transforms the bread and the wine to the body and blood of His son Jesus and that we eat Him, one little boy turned to his friend and said, "We eat Jesus? That doesn't make any sense." I wanted to laugh out of joy because of his innocence. This experience reminded me of the Gospel of Matthew when Jesus was approached by his disciples and was asked, "Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of heaven?" Then Jesus called a child over, placed it in their midst, and said, "Unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the Kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the Kingdom of heaven (cf. Matt 18.1-5)." We should never discount the faith of little children because they are some of the greatest theologians among us.

> A Blessed week to you all, Fr. Alfred Omar

Adult Confirmation or First Communion

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) might be for you if you are either of the following:

- 1) a Catholic without the sacraments of confirmation and/or communion:
- baptized members of other Christian communities; or
- 3) Un-baptised adult.

Why? To help you explore Catholicism and then decide whether to become full members of the Catholic Church.

How? Weekly meetings with community members, talk with other Catholics about their experience, meet "new" Catholics about why and how they joined the Church, to learn about the Bible, the church, Catholic Christian traditions, resources for personal reading and study, opportunities for private consultation.

For more information, contact RCIA coordinator, Rosemary Casey at rcasey6971@gmail.com.

What is stewardship?

As a Church we understand it as a complete lifestyle acknowledging God as Creator and Provider of all. It is the grateful receiving and the responsible management of God's gifts, and the eager sharing of them as expressed in prayer, worship, offering, and action. Anyone who is interested in being part of our community's Stewardship Committee or learning more about stewardship please speak with Christopher Malano.

Blessing of the Throats

St. Blaise, Biagio in Italian, Blasco or Blas in Spanish, was a bishop of Sebaste, Armenia, in modern Turkey, who was martyred for witnessing to the faith. He was tortured and beheaded for his beliefs by the local Roman governor around AD 316. This is all that is known about him, the rest being legend. We know much more about devotion to and the popularity of St. Blaise than historical facts.

The special blessing of throats associated with St. Blaise is due to a miracle attributed to him. While in prison, he miraculously saved a boy choking on a fish bone. Early in the sixth century, evidence exists in the Eastern Church that Blaise was prayed to for aliments of the throat. To this day, his feast is a holy day in the Eastern Church. In the ninth century, veneration of St. Blaise came to the Western Church and became very popular. Blessing of the throats with crossed candles began in the 1500s, the height of devotion to St. Blaise, and that blessing is still part of the devotion of the Catholic Church.

No matter what the facts are, St. Blaise is a constant reminder to us of God's care and concern for us in our weakness, sickness, and limited human existence. God's healing touch is with us always. St. Blaise's celebration is one of the ways in which we highlight and thank God for that care and concern.

On February 3 there is a special blessing with candles (unlit). The candles are crossed against the throat, and the following prayer is said: Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Respect for Life

Assisted suicide is radically different from end-of-life care and the practice of palliative care, which is the healing art of relieving pain and other distressing symptoms for patients who are seriously ill. The Diocese has asked us to make an info flyer available — please see the credenza.

Come Share the Journey

To that end, local and mainland artists and presenters come together to form community as they present concerts, lectures, and workshops about the liturgical arts and the history and culture of the Hawaiian Islands. #### Busy Persons Retreat

The Busy Persons Retreat is scheduled for March 23-27 with an optional extension on March 30. This retreat is an opportunity for you to spend some time in your busy life, meeting with a trained spiritual director to talk about your every day life and God's desire for your happiness.

We have a great team of directors with some returning and some new participants. There will be added opportunities to attend a session on Ignatian contemplation, a form of prayer that encourages us to use our imagination as we read the Gospel stories about Jesus. Or you might want to try your hand at expressing your faith through art. The March 30 extension will provide suggestions for continuing the spirit of the retreat throughout the year.

Registration forms will be available on the credenza and on the Newman website beginning next Sunday, February 9. Some scholarships are available for students.

For more information about this retreat, contact Sharon Chiarucci, sharonlee@hawaiiantel.net.

A Stewardship Moment

In today's second reading we find one of the most beautiful and familiar passages in the Bible; a recitation of fifteen characteristics of Christian love typically read at weddings and anniversary celebrations. Of course, this was not what Saint Paul had in mind when he was chastising the Christian community at Corinth for its lack of love. He admonished the members of the community to exercise better stewardship of Christian love. The practice of patience, humility, joy, truth, peace, affirmation, and hope are ways good stewards put love into action. Might there be one or two of these attributes we can work on in order to grow in our love for God and others?

Back Page Series on 'What is Campus Ministry?'

Week 2: Relationship Between the Church and Higher Education.

Campus ministry is an expression of the Church's special desire to be present to all who are involved in higher education. Throughout its history, the Church has been instrumental in cultivating the intellectual life. The Church has contributed its resources to the task of forming historical universities, and founded many of them, including those of Bologna, Paris, Oxford, and Cambridge. In the modern world, government increasingly has taken over the responsibility for higher education. As the Church and secular higher education grew distant, some mutual misunderstanding was experienced. However, "cooperation between these two great institutions, Church and university, is indispensable to the health of society."

The Contributions of Higher Education

The autonomy of the academic community and its great contributions to the common good ought to be appreciated. Higher education benefits the human family through its research, which expands our common pool of knowledge. In teaching people to think critically, colleges and universities help to humanize our world. Society has received significant assistance in solving human and technical problems, thanks to higher education. The Church also benefits from the contributions of the higher education. When new knowledge is produced, it assists Christians in the process of deepening and articulating their faith.

The Contribution of the Church

The Church brings to the dialogue with higher education its general mission to preach the Gospel of Christ and to help the human family achieve its full destiny. The Church joins its voice with others in promoting the ideal of educating the whole person. The search for truth should also include the ability to handle ethical issues and to achieve a harmonious integration of intellect and will. The Church also brings the understanding of wisdom: discovering the highest principles that integrate all knowledge; uncovering the deepest secrets that constitute human nature; and achieving a personal synthesis in which knowledge and love are ultimately united. The Church can work with higher education in improving the human community and establishing a culture that enables all human beings to reach their full potential.

Campus Ministry, in essence, bridges the institutional worlds of the Church and higher education. The work of campus ministry requires continual evaluation of traditional methods of ministry and also new approaches. The audience at universities are receptive to sound innovation and can prove to be beneficial in the future for the Church at-large and society.
