Donation Slips for Online Giving

We are encouraging parishioners to give online through our secure platform, WeShare (https://newmanhawaii.weshareonline.org). While not required, several parishioners have asked for printed donation slips to put into the collection basket during Mass. These slips can be found on the credenza. Thank you for participating in our online giving!

Religious Education Registration

Registration forms are available on the credenza for parents to complete in order to register students for the Newman Center Religious Education Program. Please complete the form and return it to the designated box along with a check for $50. Classes will begin on Sunday, September 16 and all students must be registered before that date

Hospitality Weekend

Refreshments will be served after Mass this weekend. You are invited to stay for some conversation and refreshments with others in our community.

If you would like to provide refreshments for next month, please sign up on the wooden doors to provide snacks and refreshments. Welcome to all visitors and newcomers!

Back Pack Donation Update

In July we donated 17 filled backpacks to SP@M-Student Parents at Manoa. We were able to purchase 16 additional backpacks and fill them, also for SP@M clients. Thank you again, Newman Community, for your generosity!

Living Catholic in the 808: What Are You Reading? Sherry Hayes -Peirce CEO, Church Social Tips Redondo, California

"Help yourself during this troubled period by reading holy books. This reading provides excellent food for the soul and conduces to great progress along the path of perfection. In prayer and meditation it is ourselves who speak to the Lord, while in holy reading it is God who speaks to us. Before beginning to read, raise your mind to the Lord and implore Him to guide your mind Himself, to speak to your heart and move your will." - St. Padre Pio

My summer read has been Holy Man: Father Damien of Molokai by Gavan Daws. While I thought I knew his story, reading about his life caused me to reflect on ways to help people ostracized in my community today. With so many people living with addictions, mental illness or on the streets today this book inspired me to design a "Personal Rule" for living as St. Damien did. The need to pray for others and give to those in need. It also reminded me to be more mindful of preparing to live with Christ, instead of living for worldly things.

Books about the litany of saints are great reads to inspire you to live more faithful lives, but there are many others that will inspire too. Just Google best Catholic reads for 2018, visit the Pauline Book Store or check out http://www.uscatholic.org/bookclub for suggestions.

Pope Francis Prayer for August

That any far-reaching decisions of economists and politicians may protect the family as one of the treasures of humanity.

Scripture Reflection from Celebrations

Go first and be reconciled with your brother or sister.

One of the characteristics of modern technology is that if we find a situation to be objectionable, we have the means at our fingertips to voice our criticism instantly, effortlessly and anonymously from distance.

Would our media news be filled with such vitriolic rhetoric if, before one was allowed to post an accusation, one would first be required to sit face-to-face with the person who they wished to critique? Would angry impulses have time to mellow into clearer thinking before being acted upon?

Jesus' advice is still relevant today: Before we lash out on an angry impulse, we need to step back and attempt every means possible to find a peaceful solution.

May our lives be modeled on yours, Prince of Peace, in being slow to anger and abounding in love.
