All gifts are tax-deductible and will be used towards paying expenses of tuition, room, and board (totaling approximately $45,000 per theologian/pre-theologian, annually) for those seminarians enrolled in Theology or Pre-Theology programs. Checks can be made out to Newman Center, with "Seminarian Education Fund" in the memo. Thank you!

MAHALO NUI LOA FOR SHOWING YOUR SUPPORT OF THE SEMINARIAN EDUCATION FUND!

The office of Vocations would like to say MAHALO for your generous contribution from all the parishioners and parishes throughout the diocese! The 2019 SPECIAL S.E.F COLLECTION helps in covering the cost of our seminarians at different levels of education to be trained for the priesthood, and to serve the faithful in the diocese of Honolulu. Mahalo for your generosity!

"Your reward shall be great in heaven"! (Luke 6:23)

Reflection our Seminarian Preston Castro

"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing." How often are we anxious and worried about the things within our own lives? As human beings, we all like to have everything within our control because it makes us feel safe or because we are afraid that things might turn out for the worse. The reality of it all is that there are certain things in life that we have no control over such as the pilots of the airplane or the captains of the ship. However, we trust that the pilots or the captains will bring us safely to our destination because we trust that they know what they are doing. If we can trust mere strangers, why can we not trust God who is the creator of all things, sees all things, and knows all things? This is precisely what Christ meant when He said, "There is need of only one thing." This 'one' thing is Christ. As long as you have Him, there is no need to feel anxious or worried about anything in life. The next time you are feeling anxious and worried about a particular situation, pray the "Suscipe" (Self-Offering) prayer by St. Ignatius of Loyola or even pray a simple, "Jesus I trust in you!"

Luke 10:38-42

"Yes dear..I know all about the story of 'Mary and Martha'...but you still have to help your sister with the dishes!"

New Landscaping Ministry

In the book of Genesis, God calls human beings to be good stewards of creation by cultivating the ground and keeping it. At the Newman Center, we have an opportunity to answer to that call. We are looking for volunteers to help care for the landscaping around the center at least twice a month. Please sign-up on the board with your availability or email Fr. Alfred (pastor@newhawaii.org) so that we can get started. If you would like to help in other ways, we are looking for landscaping tools as well such as rakes, hedge shears, weed eaters, etc.

A Stewardship Moment

Martha and Mary are the focus of this week-end's Gospel, which abounds with rich themes about hospitality, service, and finding the right balance between action and prayerful attention to the Lord. Christians who are good stewards of their faith life realize that if they are too busy to enjoy peaceful, private time with the Lord, then something is out of balance in their spiritual lives. If we make time for Mass, but then carry on with our busy schedules without prayer, meditation and reflection, we are missing out. If we find ourselves anxious and harried by life's routines, could it be a sign that something in our spiritual life needs some serious attention?

Thank You for Helping!

A big Mahalo and Thank you to all of you whom contributed in various ways to make Chris Malano's Farewell Party a success! God Bless you all!

Thank You

Sunday Connection from Loyola Press

The story of Jesus in the home of Martha and Mary complements the story of the Good Samaritan, which immediately precedes it in Luke's Gospel. Both stories are unique to Luke. The story of the Samaritan opens with the words "a certain man." Today's reading opens with the words "a certain woman." The Samaritan is an example of how a disciple should see and act. Mary is an example of how a disciple should listen. Mary, a woman, is a marginalized person in society, like the Samaritan. Both do what is not expected of them. As a woman, Mary would be expected, like Martha, to prepare hospitality for a guest. Here again Jesus breaks with the social conventions of his time. Just as a Samaritan would not be a model for neighborliness, so a woman would not sit with the men around the feet of a teacher.

Both stories exemplify how a disciple is to fulfill the dual command which begins chapter 10—love of God (Mary) and love of neighbor (the Samaritan). These are the two essentials of life in the kingdom. By using the examples of a Samaritan and a woman, however, Jesus is saying something more. Social codes and boundaries were strict in Jesus' time. Yet to love God with all one's heart and one's neighbor requires breaking those rules. The Kingdom of God is a society without distinctions and boundaries between its members. It is a society that requires times for seeing and doing and also times for listening and learning at the feet of a teacher.

Prayer of John Henry Newman

Lead, Kindly Light, amidst th' encircling gloom,
Lead Thou me on!

The night is dark, and I am far from home—
Lead Thou me on!

Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see
The distant scene; one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor pray'd that Thou
Shouldst lead me on;

I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on!

I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will: remember not past years!

So long Thy power hath blest me, sure it still
Will lead me on.

O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till
The night is gone;

And with the morn those angel faces smile,
Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile!

Meantime, along the narrow rugged path,
Thyself hast trod,

Lead, Saviour, lead me home in childlike faith,
Home to my God.

To rest forever after earthly strife
In the calm light of everlasting life.

Aloha, Chris Malano! Until we meet again...

We bid our Aloha to Chris Malano, our Administrator, this week as he enters the Missionary Society of St. Paul the Apostle (aka Paulist Fathers) novitiate. After coming back to Hawai'i in 2012, Chris joined our parish community and attended the Sunday, 5pm Student Mass. In the Fall of 2015, he started working as the Pastoral Administrator under then-pastor Fr. Jack Ryan. Over the course of four years, Chris has worked hard to bring our community to where it is now. Through his background in Campus Ministry and other ecclesial work, he has help us bridge the students and the wider parish community together. We are grateful for your ministry here at Newman Center/Holy Spirit Parish and may God who has begun the good work in you bring it to completion.

Introducing our new Campus Minister,

Nichelle Soriano!

Nichelle grew up in Washington State, and moved to Oahu to pursue her undergraduate degree at University of Hawaii at Manoa. During her undergraduate studies, Nichelle became a member of our Newman Center Ohana, working as a student intern and serving as a student council leader.

Like many university students, Nichelle struggled to find her vocation and career path. She credits the Newman Center community for helping her grow her faith during those critical years as a student. Here, she built lifelong friendships, journeyed in faith together with her peers, and found herself fully trusting in God's plans for her life when she switched her major of study.

After graduating with her B.A. in Communicology & B.A. in Religion, Nichelle became the Youth & Young Adult Minister at Mary, Star of the Sea Parish in Kahala. Today, Nichelle is excited to get to know the parishoners and students of Newman Center – Holy Spirit Parish. She is looking forward to welcoming the students to their "home away from home", building community, and helping grow their relationship with God through social & spiritual campus ministry events and activities.

In her free time, she performs Filipino traditional dance, spending time with her family and friends, and in recent years started to take up a liking for long distance running and cooking.

Welcome back Nichelle!
