Aloha! Welcome!

We are the Catholic Center and Campus Ministry at the University of Hawai'i, and under the Catholic Diocese of Honolulu, serving parishioners, staff, faculty, and students alike that stimulates critical thinking and dialogue about issues that challenge Christian living and commits to a living faith that practices and promotes justice.

We are a spirit-filled and welcoming community that proclaims and celebrates the Good News through liturgy, the sacraments, faith sharing, outreach, and social action. As the Roman Catholic Community of the University of Hawai'i, we offer opportunities for life-long faith development to all who choose to join us. We invite the contribution of gifts in stewardship and evangelism, and challenge one another in the same manner that Jesus challenges us: to love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind and to love your neighbor as yourself. Come journey with us!

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Generous and Loving Creator, you have called us to Malama i ka Makana (Cherish the Gift).

As disciples of your Son, we ask that your Spirit open our minds and hearts to more deeply appreciate your countless blessings. Increase your transforming spirit within us, so as to nurture our call to stewardship as a way of life marked always by faith-filled prayer, service to others and generous giving.

With the kokua of St. Marianne and St. Damien, teach us to be good stewards so we may return a hundred-fold the makana entrusted to us.

We pray this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Reflect

Many moons ago, I was invited to hike the Maunawili Falls Trail with a group of friends. One of them promised that the view at the end would be worth it. I almost didn't go because waking up at the crack of dawn was not my idea of fun. But somehow, I went and chose to trust them. I packed a small backpack with a flashlight, water bottle, and a granola bar (just in case I got hungry).

At first, the hike seemed manageable. But then the trail got steep, and I was huffing and puffing, convinced the end was nowhere in sight. At one point, I told my friends to go on without me. I was certain my legs were going to give out and that I'd never make it back. But by the grace of God, I reached the end, just in time for sunrise. The sky lit up with color. I stood still—partly in awe, and partly because my legs were numb. Either way, the view was so worth it.

We are reminded in this Sunday's readings that the journey of faith often feels like climbing in the dark. The first reading from the Book of Wisdom recalls how the Israelites trusted in God's promise, even in uncertainty. The passage from the Letter of St. Paul to the Hebrews speaks of Abraham's unwavering faith in things he could not yet see. And St. Luke speaks about Jesus urging us to be vigilant, to stay ready like the servants waiting for their master's return.

We live in a world that often rewards instant gratification – quick answers, fast solutions, and immediate results. But we are challenged to live differently – to trust, to wait, and to prepare for something greater that we may not yet fully understand. Jesus doesn't promise ease or clarity. He promises presence and fulfillment. We are called to be ready, not out of fear, but out of love and hope. The treasure we are waiting for is not success, comfort, or recognition. It is Christ Himself.

Where is your heart resting today? What are you preparing for? May we learn to walk in faith, hope, and love.

St. John Henry Newman, pray for us!

Blessings to you and your 'ohana!
