TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YOUR FAITH
HAS SAVED
YOU.

— LUKE 17:19 —

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 12, 2025

Aloha! Welcome!

We are the Catholic Center and Campus Ministry at the University of Hawai'i, and under the Catholic Diocese of Honolulu, serving parishioners, staff, faculty, and students alike that stimulates critical thinking and dialogue about issues that challenge Christian living and commits to a living faith that practices and promotes justice.

We are a spirit-filled and welcoming community that proclaims and celebrates the Good News through liturgy, the sacraments, faith sharing, outreach, and social action. As the Roman Catholic Community of the University of Hawai'i, we offer opportunities for life-long faith development to all who choose to join us. We invite the contribution of gifts in stewardship and evangelism, and challenge one another in the same manner that Jesus challenges us: to love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind and to love your neighbor as yourself. Come journey with us!

Mini Reflection: I have enough faith to know that God can heal me. But do I have enough faith to embrace the purpose for which He heals me?

Your Faith Has Saved You

Your faith has saved you. These are the words I pray I will hear when my heart stops beating, when the last breath has left my lungs.

We hear Jesus say these words, or words like them, several times in the Gospels: to the woman bold enough to grasp for his cloak in a crowd, to the men who testify to their belief that he can restore their sight, to the leper kneeling before him in thanks.

These are some of my favorite passages in all of Scripture, because they illustrate so beautifully what salvific faith is — and what it is not.

It's so easy to think that I have done all the necessary work by simply believing. Yes, Christ is my Savior. Yes, the Church is his bride. Yes, this doctrine is true, that dogma is infallible, so on and so forth.

I believe!

Well, so what? Satan believes, too. It doesn't do him any good.

The lepers had faith — so they begged Jesus to heal them. They had faith — so they followed his instructions and went to the priests. Their faith was sufficient to motivate these actions, which led to their physical healing. But only one had faith strong enough to understand that physical healing doesn't mean anything without spiritual results. Only one had enough faith to go back to the source of his healing and say, "Thank you. Now what?"

I have enough faith to know that God can heal me. But do I have enough faith to embrace the purpose for which He heals me?

If Jesus tells you that your faith has saved you, he isn't talking about faith as merely an internally held belief. In each of these Gospel passages, he's talking about faith as a conviction that is making itself seen. Heard. Felt. He's talking about an arm that is reaching for the hem of a garment, a voice that says "I believe" or a knee that is bent in gratitude.

He's talking about faith that is so strong it becomes action. This is the faith I hope I can have.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Generous and Loving Creator, you have called us to Malama i ka Makana (Cherish the Gift).

As disciples of your Son, we ask that your Spirit open our minds and hearts to more deeply appreciate your countless blessings. Increase your transforming spirit within us, so as to nurture our call to stewardship as a way of life marked always by faith-filled prayer, service to others and generous giving.

With the kokua of St. Marianne and St. Damien, teach us to be good stewards so we may return a hundred-fold the makana entrusted to us.

We pray this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Interested in being nourished by the Word. Come to a special two-part Bible Study, on November 5th and 12th at 6:00 pm. Focusing on the topics, "Hope in the Midst of Darkness - How Do We Handle Doubt?" and "How Do We Forgive?"

But you may ask yourself why Bible study? Because the Bible is sacred, special and holy. And we should study the bible because as Disciples of Christ, we should Learn the Word, Love the Word, Live the Word and Give the Word.

The two-night Bible Study will be led by The Rev. Dr. Dan Chun. Dan is a Presbyterian Pastor, who was the senior pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Honolulu for 29 years. He currently attends Newman Center weekly for Mass since October 2023 often with his Catholic wife Pam.

Dan has two divinity degrees and a doctorate and a certificate from Loyola University in New Orleans' Institute of Religious Communication. Dan has the qualifications to share his wisdom of Scripture with us.

Dan also has Masters in Cinema Production from USC and is an award-winning filmmaker and prior to entering ministry, Dan was a news reporter for KGMB TV.

In addition, Dan and his wife Pam co-founded Hawaiian Islands Ministries (HIM) that trained more than 80,000 Catholic and Protestant leaders. Dan has also worked with Compassion International helping to feed hungry children from the around world, releasing children from poverty in the Jesus' name.

Join Dan on November 5th and 12th at 6pm, and let this well-known author of the book, How to Pick A Spouse, famous speaker and podcaster bless us with his knowledge.

All our Welcome to attend.

Reflect

There have been times in my life when being thankful didn't come easily. When I was going through something difficult, it was hard to notice the good around me. I was so focused on what wasn't working out that I missed the small ways God was still there, whether it was in the people who cared, in the moments of peace that broke through, or in the quiet strength that helped me keep going. Over time, I learned that gratitude isn't just about saying "thank you" when life is good but about trusting that God is present even in the hard and difficult moments in our lives.

In today's Gospel, Jesus heals ten lepers, but only one returns to say thank you. All ten were cured, but the one who came back, a Samaritan, received something more. His gratitude doesn't just show good manners but showed faith and awareness. By returning to Jesus, he opened himself to a deeper kind of healing, one that touched his heart and not just his body. Like those lepers, we sometimes forget to turn back. We pray for something, and when it happens, we move on without pausing to thank God. But gratitude reminds us to stop, to look around, and to see how much grace is already at work in our lives.

We are reminded that being grateful changes us. It helps us see God's goodness even when things aren't perfect. May we learn to return to Jesus again and again, not just to ask for help, but to say, "Thank you, Lord," for the blessings we already have and for the ways He continues to walk with us every day.

"How often do we say thank you to those who help us, those close to us, those at our side throughout our life? All too often we take everything for granted." – Pope Francis

A BIG MAHALO to our parishioners and benefactors for your continued prayers, love, and support for campus ministry. We are blessed by your generosity and kindness to our student community. May we continue to pray for one another, and for peace in our world and among our brothers and sisters.

Come Holy Spirit! St. John Henry Newman, pray for us!

Blessings to you and your 'ohana!
